THE President on last Friday signed the proclamation putting into the treaty with Panama regarding the isthmian canal, and this project is now an assured fact. It should not be forgotten, however, that without Democatic votes, this bill would never have gone through. The Democrats did not vote to endorse President Roosevelt's arbitrary and unprecedented action in the Panama matter, but purposely for the good of our country and to show the public that they would not stand as obstructionists to a project for which they have so long fought-an isthmian connection of the Atlantic and Pacific. Now let Mr. Roosevelt go ahead and dig the canal.

Goebel's first dam by Rolla Golddust, he by Arabian Golddust, he by Dorsey's Golddust 150. Second dam by Dr. J. H. Thomas' old Cotton Picker. Goebel's first dam, a half sister to Nellie W., which was sold for $6,000 by Will Robertson, of Bards

PREMIUM. - I will give to the best colt the season; second best colt, $10. Colts to be shown on fair grounds at Hartford, Ky., on Saturday before the fair in 1905. To prove my horse, I will give $100 for the best colt on day of show, if owner will accept.

OTHER STOCK .- I will also bring Isaiah, my thoroughbred Poland China boar, which will serve sows at $1.00 cash. Also some nice pigs and calves for sale. Early colts stand the best chance for the premium, so come early and get the premium colt and choice of pigs. I will begin the season the 22nd of March,

F. W. CREAGER, Cecilia, Ky.
